

Re - qui-em æ - ter - - - nam_

The musical notation is written on a five-line staff with a treble clef. The notes are diamond-shaped and positioned on the lines of the staff. The lyrics are placed below the staff, with hyphens indicating the duration of each note. Brackets above the staff group the notes into measures: the first measure contains five notes (Re, G, B, D, G), the second contains five notes (A, C, E, G, B), the third contains five notes (C, E, G, B, D), the fourth contains five notes (E, G, B, D, G), and the fifth contains five notes (A, C, E, G, B). The final note is followed by a short horizontal line.

Detailed description: The image shows a musical score for a Graduale. It consists of three staves of music. The top staff is in treble clef and contains the lyrics 'et lux per-pe - tu - a _____ lu - ce - at lu - ce -'. The middle staff is also in treble clef and contains the lyrics 'lu - ce - at e - - - - is lu - ce - at e - -'. The bottom staff is in bass clef and contains the lyrics 'a lu - ce - at e - - - - is lu - ce - at _____ e - is lu -'. The music features various note values, including minims, crotchets, and quavers, with some notes beamed together. There are several rests and a long horizontal line indicating a continuation of the melody. The number '23' is written in the top right corner.
